Terms and Conditions

1. Incomplete applications will not be processed.
2. Applicants will be invited for an interview with the Selection Panel. Applicants who cannot attend the interview may be disqualified.
3. Applicants may also be visited by the Selection Panel at their preschools for teaching observation.
4. All applications received are subject to further approval and the Selection Panel reserves the right to reject any applications.
5. SEED Institute is committed to maintain the confidentiality of the applicant's personal information and undertakes not to reveal any of the applicant's information to any 3rd party without prior written consent of the applicant.
6. Course schedule and venue are subject to confirmation. SEED Institute reserves the rights to cancel/re-schedule the class and venue without prior notice.
7. Course withdrawal: A written notice must be submitted and received by SEED Institute before the programme commences.
8. Course deferment: Shortlisted trainees for the programme should ideally complete the programme within the assigned time period. In the event that this is not possible, SEED Institute will within its means, arrange for make-up classes with subsequent cohorts. Failing which, no make-up arrangement will be made by SEED Institute.
9. Course requirements and assessments: The trainee is required to attain 100% attendance for workshop, learning journey, mentorship and symposium. In the event the trainee is unable to meet 100% attendance per module and/or complete all necessary assessments as required, SEED and Wheelock may decide for the trainee to be withdrawn from the programme. The decision made is final.
